Verse for the Month: Matthew 23:1-12 NIV

The tensions between Jesus and the Pharisees teach us something about Jesus' interest and what we should value. Jesus was never against their responsibility to teach and interpret the Law as the experts. He did not like how differently they lived in terms of their teachings. He struggled at how they made other people's lives difficult and yet they instead chose ways that did not honour their very teachings. He would call them hypocrites, brood of vipers which would anger them. Jesus was not being disrespectful, but called for integrity. For Jesus what we know should translate to what we do. It is a higher and noble way of living. Any knowledge that does not transform and shape our character for the better is wasted information. Any expectations of others and we struggle to model that way of life is hypocritical. Any attempts to impress others and there is no conviction of our own beliefs is just but self-deception. We are called this month to be sincere, authentic and devout as we seek to glorify God in service, worship, relationships and giving.

Prayer:

Give me the courage, dear God, to be sincere in my beliefs as I express them in the values I uphold and interact with others. Amen

FELLOWSHIP GROUPS

Fellowship groups provide an opportunity to grow in our faith, and share our challenges, successes and experience on a familiar basis with a small group of like-minded Christian friends. Groups cater for different aspects of our spiritual growth, including Fellowship, Bible Study, Manyano, Young Adult and Youth.

Be a part of this critical aspect of your relationship and life with Christ within the Welties Community.

For a full listing of available venues and times for fellowship groups, please look at the notice board in the foyer.
