Verse for the Month: Genesis 21:1-7

The journey has been long for Abraham and Sarah, to the extent that they made grave mistakes along the way. We all do. God remained faithful on the other hand. The promise is fulfilled, and Isaac is born. Not only do they rejoice, but also remember God's directive and circumcise Isaac after eight days. We journey through the days of long journeys, mistakes and yet fulfilment of the promises and remembering God in the end. Is it not wonderful that after falling we rise? After messing up we do right? After giving up, we pick up from where we left off? After forgetting we remember? Such is a life of the people who have been healed and transformed by grace to reimagine the new Church.

Prayer:

As, God's grace touches us this Lenten Season may we be healed of our past mistakes, ignorance, unhelpful habits and discover the fullness of life in God. May we all allow the cross to be a powerful image of our healing and the resurrection be a reminder of our transformed life from death to life eternal.

Amen
